The Community:

Corning is a small, rural City in the northern reaches of the Sacramento Valley where agriculture is important. The City is surrounded by olive, almond and prune orchards.

Due to its location nearly mid-way between Los Angeles and Portland, Corning is home to three large travel centers that are major employers.

About 7,600 people call the City of Corning home. Many more live in the surrounding unincorporated area. It's a friendly community that hosts events like the Veteran's Day Parade, Hometown Christmas, May Madness Car Show, Junior Rodeo and Olive Festival. The City includes several Municipal Parks, including facilities for youth baseball, soccer, swimming, basketball, tennis, and a state-of-the-art Bike and Skate Park.

The City is located on Interstate 5, about 2 hours north of Sacramento and 50 minutes south of Redding. California State University, Chico, and Butte Community College are about 20 minutes to the southeast. Shasta Community College is 45 minutes north in Redding.

The City's 2017-2018 General Fund Budget totals over $5.6 million and currently has a reserve Balance of about $1.4 million. It operates as a General Law City with a Council-Manager form of government. The City has a full-time staff of 47 and 10 part-time seasonal employees. There are four organized Bargaining Units with the current MOU's due to expire on December 31, 2019.

Ideal Candidate:

The City of Corning seeks an experienced progressive leader to serve as its next Fire Chief. The ideal Candidate will possess strong communication skills and be extremely knowledgeable of the volunteer fire service. He/she will possess the skills and ability to adopt industry changes and incorporate such changes at the local level. The individual selected is expected to project professionalism and leadership competence, be an exceptional critical thinker and an innovative problem solver.

The ideal Candidate should be dedicated to strengthening intradepartmental relations and advocate for continued training. The reputation of the ideal Candidate should reflect that of an ethical and responsive leader and must possess solid external/internal communication and teambuilding skills. The ideal Candidate should display good instinct and a history of guiding the fire service environment to embrace inclusivity, diversity and new technology. The Candidate will seek to understand the Corning Fire Department's history and current culture, strive to maximize inclusivity and adherence to best practices.
