F. REGULAR AGENDA:

2. 2014-2034 General Plan Update: Discussion on existing and proposed General Plan Goals, Policies, and Objectives with potential revisions and additions.

Planning Consultant John Stoufer announced that the new information presented in the folders tonight is the updated and revised General Plan Goals, Policies and Objectives with revisions and additions previously discussed. He stated that the Housing Element is not included and would be added at a later date. He further stated that the existing binders can now be kept for a history.

Mr. Stoufer informed the Commissioners that future documents would be provided in the same manner as was presented tonight if agreeable. By consensus of the Commission this and the format was agreeable as presented tonight. Mr. Stoufer asked that the Commissioners take the new draft provided tonight and review for final discussion at the October meeting in a month.

General Plan Consultant Eihnard Diaz briefly discussed the 19 pages provided tonight (draft Community Goals and Objectives along with Goals, Objectives & Policies for the three General Plan Groups and Associated Elements). He touched on each of the titles within the document directing the Commissioners to keep in mind that this is a City, especially in regards to the Biological Resources Group. In regards to Water Resources he stated that much of this is common sense.

Mr. Stoufer did ask the Commissioners to review the "Noise" section of this document emphasizing that the City currently does not have a Noise Ordinance. He stated that the goal is to simplify this document while ensuring that it meets and addresses the needs of the City.
