Presentation of High School Recreation Activities Survey:

Jake Johnson, Jessica Flores and Cheila Madrigal from the Corning High School ROP Recreation Leadership Class provided a PowerPoint Presentation to the Recreation Commission regarding their completed Recreation Survey Research. The PowerPoint displayed various graphs and data while the students highlighted specific areas they found to be interesting.

Presentation of Skate Board Park Information by Mayor Gary Strack and Councilman John Leach – Discussion Item.

Mayor Gary Strack and Councilman John Leach presented information and pictures taken of northern California Skateparks that included Skateparks in the Cities of Red Bluff, Willows, Sacramento and Yuba City. Dialogue was exchanged between skateboard enthusiasts in the audience and the Mayor and Councilman regarding the process of building a skatepark. The enthusiasts were encouraged to begin building momentum within the Community for the skateboard project. Supporters of the proposed Skateboard Park will stay in contact with the Recreation Supervisor to obtain current information and direction.

Danny Dunnegan spoke about the long process it has taken the Rodger's Theatre Committee to get as far as it has. He recommended gathering a large group of Volunteers and begin fundraising immediately.

Recreation Supervisor Kimberly Beck reminded the skateboarders that the Skateboard Park could be a long process. She also stated that she is meeting with Donna Hake from Red Bluff on Thursday, March 5, 2009 and will hopefully have more guidance to give.
