The Corning Recreation Commission serves as an advisory body to the Corning City Council on Public Parks and Recreation issues including park use, master planning, acquisition and development, beautification, improvement and maintenance of City Parks. The Commission provides a public forum for the proposal and discussion of public recreation services that benefit the Community. Ideally the Commission would encourage community volunteers and youth and adult volunteer sports groups to work together in the planning for current and future facility and program needs.

BACKGROUND:

At the September 11, 2007, the Corning City Council reviewed the listing of available recreational activities and programs in the City compiled by the Recreation Commission for public distribution and posting on the City's web page. The Council noted that a number of activities are missing from the list, including some on the original email lists shared among the Commission, Ad Hoc Committee, Staff and Council.

Some of the activities requested to be included are the:

- Annual Pet Show,
- Various Church Activities (see attached letter from the Harvest Christian Center)
- Bowling Leagues
- Sports/Cheerleading Camps

Pastor Rob Kee attended the Council meeting and offered to contact the Churches. His letter is attached.

RECOMMENDATION:

CITY COUNCIL RECOMMENDS ADDITIONAL RESEARCH INTO RECREATIONAL ACTIVITIES/PROGRAMS CURRENTLY AVAILABLE TO POST ON THE CITY WEB PAGE AND FOR PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION.
